Dear Mark

Support for “The Bureau”

As not only owners of a small Western Australian property consulting business, but also as parents, we have a vested interest in the prosperity of Western Australia.

We see “The Bureau” as playing a vital role in promoting our state and its assets from its intelligent workforce, its natural resources and manufacturing, technology and education right through to its diverse natural wonders.

This initiative will contribute to the growth and promotion of our state and will surely enhance both present benefit and sustainability of its assets and opportunities for future generations.

We have been long-time subscribers to Business News and are firmly of the view that it is the pre-eminent business journal in our State. Always well informed on all matters relating to the economic health of our State, we feel that they are best placed to take on The Bureau initiative.

We applaud Business News for “The Bureau” initiative and offer our you our fullest support.

Yours Sincerely

LPC Cresa
